THE 1957 ANDRONIAN

PRESENTED

BY

THE SENIOR CLASS

OF

ANDREWS HIGH SCHOOL

ANDREWS, INDIANA

FOREWORD

Upon graduation of the Senior Class of 1957, we wish to commemorate the events of our school days through the pages of this yearbook.

As we portray the 1956-1957 school year, may the story of our school be re-lived through the pictures in this book.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Business Editor: Bob Rogers; Assistant Editor: Nancy Warfel; Sponsor: Mrs. Ruth Stookey; Copy Editor: Judy Stouder; Editor: Carol Akers; Photography Editor: Paula Wilson.

DEDICATION

Mom and Dad, we dedicate this 1956-1957 yearbook to you.
P is for the patience you have always shown us.
A is for the advice you have given readily.
R is for reminding us when we have forgotten things, even the little ones.
E is for the examples you have set.
N is for providing all our needs though you thought some of them unnecessary.
T is for the truthful ways you have shown us.
S is for sincerity--our sincere "Thanks" to you, Mom and Dad.
We don't say it often enough but it is in our hearts. May this page compensate for all the times we've forgotten.

SOCIETY'S ACTIVITIES

The Sunshine Society started the 1956-57 year with the initiation of new members. The society was happy to record the greatest number of members in its history with 51.

Twenty members made the journey to Ossian for the Sunshine Society District Convention and to Rensselaer for the 1957 state convention.

The Sunshine Society has worked on several projects during the year, some to raise money and others to spread cheer. A few of the projects include selling candy; preparing a Thanksgiving program for the school and for the Methodist Memorial Home at Warren; sending sick cards; taking a blanket collection to be added to the money the society sends each year to the Riley Fund; sponsoring a spring dance; and holding a party for the member's mothers and ideal ladies.

The Sunshine Society held its last meeting on April 6 when the installation of new officers was conducted.

NOT FINISHED: JUST BEGUN BACCALAUREATE

On Sunday, May 5, 1957, the Baccalaureate service for the nineteen graduating seniors was held in the Methodist Church. The seniors marched in to the processional music of "Pomp and Circumstance" played by Mrs. Ruth Stookey. The choral arrangement of "I Shall Not Pass Again This Way" was presented by the mixed vocal ensemble. The Invocation was given by Rev. Paul G. Frankenfeld, followed by another number by the mixed vocal ensemble, "You'll Never Walk Alone". The sermon was then delivered by Rev. A. M. Taylor. Following the sermon Mr. Wilbur Mundy, Trustee, presented each member of the graduating class with a Bible inscribed with their name. The service was closed with the benediction pronounced by Rev. Glen Raney.

COMMENCEMENT

The Commencement exercise was held Friday, May 10, 1957, in the school gymnasium. Music was presented by the Bailey Orchestra. The Invocation was given by Rev. O. S. Crain. The Commencement Address, "Building for the Future," was delivered by Mr. Keith Y. Carper, Superintendent of the Ligioneer Public Schools. The Superintendent of Huntington County Schools, Harold A. Smith, then presented the nineteen graduating seniors with their diplomas. Then the Principal, John R. Hahn, presented various awards. The Kitchenmaid Sportsmanship Trophy was presented to Charles Harvey. The Kitchenmaid Scholarship and a State Scholarship were received by Judy Stouder. Medals were then presented to the Salutatorian and Valedictorian, Paula Wilson and Judy Stouder respectively. The benediction completing the exercise was pronounced by Rev. O.S. Crain.
